

Elyea hired at Integrity Staffing as the new account manager

Matt Elyea has joined Integrity Staffing as account manager. Elyea is responsible for recruiting and client services in the company's direct hire division. He has six years of recruiting experience in local and regional markets. He earned a certified personnel consultant designation in 2007. Elyea attended Ohio Northern University and served in the Armed Forces.

